BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF THE NEW JAMAICA RACE TRACK.

(By LOUIS BIEDERMAN.)

The Metropolitan Jockey Club is the latest addition to the Eastern race circuit. It has been admitted to the Jockey Club and dates have been allotted. Three meetings will be held on the course this season under the skilful direction of Philip J. Dwyer, President of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, who has consented to steer the new club clear of the shoals that constantly rise up before new racing ventures. Secretary McIntyre and the entire staff of the Brooklyn Jockey Club will aid Mr. Dwyer. The Metropolitan Jockey Club has been popularly styled Tim Sullivan's race-track. This is because the Senator owns a block of stock.

The course has cost a pot of money. Everything was constructed in lavish style and money was thrown away in lavish profusion. The grand stand and club-house are modern and up-to-date in every particular. The track proper has been well constructed and will be very fast. The stables are models and are said to be the finest in the world.

The new course is situated near Jamaica, and about the same time will be required to reach it as to get to the Aqueduct course. It is not the intention of the new club to fly very high this season in the matter of stakes and purses, but next season the programme will be laid out to fit the season and the patronage. There is no reason why the Metropolitan Jockey Club should not be an interesting and welcome addition to the racing circuit.

FIRST INTER-CITY BOWLING GAMES.

Buffalo Pair Will Roll Brooklyn's Best on Alley Across the Bridge During Week.

Bowling in Brooklyn are interested in the coming inter-city match between the Buffalo and Brooklyn bowlers. The first series of games between them will be played at one of the prominent alleys across the bridge some night this week. A return match will be played in Buffalo the latter part of next month. Wolf, who is selected to bowl on the Brooklyn team, is a member of the All-American team.

LAST WEEK TO ENTER BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

Committee Will Probably Announce the Schedule for the Opening Games on Wednesday —“Loaded” Balls Discussed.

This is the last week for the bowlers to get in line for the prizes in The Evening World's big free tournament, and those teams that do not have their entries in before Wednesday may be barred out altogether, as the 200 limit will probably be reached by that time. To-night the committee will hold a meeting and the minor points of the tournament will be decided. The schedule for the opening week will also be announced.

The question of the time allowed teams to practice has not yet been definitely settled, but in all probability there will be no time set aside for it before the games. With 1,500 men to bowl the time for the games will be very short, and there will be little delay on the evenings scheduled for rolling. The cup design has not yet been selected, but several drawings have been submitted to the committee, and the winning team will have a trophy that it can be proud of.

The fifty gold trophies for the high men in the preliminary games are all ready. The little gold balls have been declared by the bowlers to be the hand-somest prizes ever offered in preliminary games and will be well worth the one game necessary to bowl for them. As to what will be done about the loaded ball the committee has nothing to say, and no action will probably be taken in the matter.

ing game. When we cater to the few, and force out the many, that is, the bowlers who have made the game popular, the office man, clerks and those who bowl solely for the benefit, they derive from the exercise or from the pleasure they have in such a fascinating game. If they are forced to quit, then we have robbed bowling of its support. What has made bowling so popular is the amount of luck connected with the game, and as many new beginners have discovered that with little practice they can become quite expert, and as they have derived much pleasure from that practice, they have sacrificed all other sports for bowling.

I am very much surprised that the alley owners, managers and those financially interested in the game have not discovered their mistake before. If we permit the few to change the rules or regulations of our bowling game and make it necessary for a man to train in order to fit himself for a game of endurance rather than the ordinary light-nimble ball, then it will be necessary to divide the bowlers into two classes, and when this is done you will find a lack of interest in the game in all bowling cities and there will be little or no attention paid to match games. I believe that it is absolutely necessary that the American Bowling Congress take some action with regard to the weight of the regular ball, and from the numerous letters that I have received from outside bowlers I am satisfied that the ball question will be brought up at the next meeting.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

George Klump, having decided not to organize the Harlem Circle tournament, the meeting arranged for yesterday afternoon was called off.

The All-American Trio will make their first appearance in the upper section of Brooklyn today, playing from 2 to 11 P. M. at the Elephant club alleys against team selected from the Brooklyn Royal Arcanum League.

The Executive Committee of the American National tournament held a special meeting yesterday afternoon and awarded the game won by the 7-20-4 club from the Corinthian club to the latter, because the 7-20-4 club played a man under an assumed name.

Quahard and Pease, the Buffalo match bowlers, are expected in Brooklyn to play on the main-tenance.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW ORLEANS RACE TRACK, Jan. 26.—A. P. Mathewson returned from his quest at Newport for the alleged ring, Hiram Johnson, the found Hampton, the horse shipped with Hiram Johnson, in the stable of A. C. Glover at Newport. He traced Hiram Johnson to a livery stable in Cincinnati and thence to two other stables at Latonia, where he lost track of him. Mathewson says he believes the horse is still in Cincinnati, but that he has done all he can to find him and is through with the entire business. The shipping bill and receipts were signed by J. Sunderland, the man to whom he sold the horse.

The track today was sloppy after a heavy shower in the early morning. The scratches were My Surprize, Allegre, Grandon, Hazy, Ward Hunter, Major Manser, Hy-Adelaide, Sarilla, Musketo, Fading Light, Shot Gun, Brief, Eva Rice, Ben Chance, John A. Clarke, Lady Alberta, Great American, Par Excellence.

Announcement was made this morning that Buchanan had been suspended by the starter Saturday for two days. He will be allowed to fill his engagements to-day. John A. Drake arrived here today on a flying visit. The shipping bill and receipts were signed by J. Sunderland, the man to whom he sold the horse.

The handicapper in which Old Hutch, Harry New and Federal were named to go was declared off and a selling race substituted.

SHARKEY HOT FOOT AFTER MUNROE.

Sailor, Angry at Being Called a Has Been, Is on His Way to New York.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Tom Sharkey has changed his plans and will go on to New York at once to take up the Jack Munroe proposition.

Sharkey and Jack McCormick, one-time conqueror of Kid McCoy, are at the Sherman House, here, and intended to go at once to West Haven.

"I think," said Sharkey, "that Tommy West has put him up to this by toying me as a dead one just back to life for one breath. I am far enough back to hurry to New York for a chance to get on with him just on this report from the world. If he is tired of the foot-fights he can get tired of me by making the match as quick as he promises here."

"I will pick up Jenkins, the wrestler," said McCormick. "He will work to get Tom in shape when we get the match made."

NEW ORLEANS ENTRIES.

NEW ORLEANS RACE TRACK, La., Jan. 26.—The entries for to-morrow's races are as follows:

DOESN'T BAR THE COLORED FIGHTERS.

"Young Corbett" Will Take on Any Man in His Class, White or Black—Going to 'Frisco.

"Young Corbett" called at the office of The Evening World this afternoon and explained that he was willing and ready to meet any man in the world at his weight, regardless of color.

This was in reply to statements that have been made about his drawing the color line, which the lighter fighter pronounced absolutely untrue.

"I don't bar any one in my class," said he, "and will take on any one, white or black, that wants a fight. As to Joe Gans, I have never heard a thing from him about a match, and a fight with him is out of the question, as we are not in the same class at all. That is why I could not fight him, not because he is black."

"I will probably go to 'Frisco in a few days. It looks as if that were the only town where a fight could be pulled off now. I have an offer to meet the winner of the Astor-Hanlon go, which takes place Jan. 29.

"The offer to me guarantees $5,000 or $10,000."
